FLOOD RUSHES OVER ARKANSAS WHEN LEVEE GIVES AWAY

BREAK IN LEVEE NEAR MEMPHIS WILL RESULT IN INUNDATION OF SEVERAL COUNTIES.

Memphis Tenn April 8.—Extra for the break in the St Francis levee at Graves Bayou, about 2 miles south of Memphis on the Arkansas side of the river the flood situation throughout the central section of the Mississippi valley today is practically the same as yesterday.

The Graves Bayou crevasse this morning was reported to be widening and it is expected to result in the inundation of about 820,000 acres of timberland, or twenty per cent of the lower St Francis basin. A considerable fall in the stage at Scanlon and Biggs Landing, Ark., was reported today.

At Memphis the gauge stood at 45 at 7 o'clock this morning, three tenths of a foot above the highest point recorded in the 1912 flood. According to weather forecasters, the crest of the flood is still two days above Memphis or due to be passing New Madrid, Mo. today.

Chief Engineer D. C. Covington of the St Francis levee board left yesterday for the scene of trouble near Graves Bayou.

It is believed the break is so serious that repairs cannot be made until the flood subsides. Practically the whole of Lee, Crittenden and St Francis counties will be overflowed.

Reports to the United States engineers office tell of satisfactory conditions above Memphis. The hardest work is still centered on the floodfoot levee, which has been built upon to stand the greatest strain in its history. On the Arkansas side large gangs of laborers are stationed along the levees and when over a week apart develops a large force is rushed to the scene. Sailors are plentiful and the engineers express the hope of passing the flood through their territory without a break.

In Memphis the backwaters from the Bayou Cayoso continue to spread over the law lying territory adjoining. All the residents of the flooded district which is confined to a comparatively small portion of the city area, had ample warning and no serious accidents have been reported.

Profiting by previous experience the street car traffic is suffering in the interference crawling have been placed under the street railway tracks while temporary sidewalks have been built for pedestrians.

Mr. W. B. Cox of Ozark is reported critically ill, and Mrs. C. B. Piller, a sister of Mrs. Cox left this afternoon to visit the family.

Mrs. Newton mother of W. F. Newton continues in a critical condition at her home three miles from town. She has been sick for several days.

THE DEADLY RIFLE IN TOWN

IF IT'S AGAINST THE LAW TO SHOOT THEM THE LAW SHOULD BE ENFORCED

There is probably an ordinance on the city's long list of ordinances against discharging a fire arm of any kind within the city limits. If there is such an ordinance it is being grossly neglected. It is not being enforced.

If a shotgun party were to be cut here and begin shooting pigeons or bats on the streets and all over the city they would probably be arrested. They are no more dangerous—not half as dangerous—as the rifles the boys of this town are using daily on the streets crowded with children and others.

The average father wouldn't turn over an automatic Colt to their children to play with but many of them do turn over to them small rifles that are equally as dangerous.

The city authorities should enforce the law. If there is one and if not one should be put on it before preventing the firing of any kind of a fire arm within the city limits.

CONNECTICUT TO ELECT SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE

Hartford Conn April 8.—This lower house of the Connecticut general assembly by a vote of 150 to 77 passed a resolution ratifying the amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of United States Senators by the people. The lower house measure was then transmitted to the senate.

The resolution was unanimously passed by the senate thus making ratification of the amendment to the federal constitution assured.

D. W. Capps of Abbeville was in Dothan yesterday. While here he sold 10 hales of cotton and another lot he had in headland.

Wilson Reads His First Message To Congress

SUFFRAGETTES IN ENGLAND TRY TO BLOW UP CASTLE

Dudley England April 8.—Military suffragettes early today attempted to blow up the castle of his lord Dudley castle parts of which date back to the thirteenth century.

The inhabitants of the town were awakened by a loud explosion. A large force of police was dispatched to the castle and on searching the surrounding grounds found some chemicals and blasting powder. Most of the powder had failed to explode and the damage was not serious. Two old siege guns weighing a ton each were thrown out of the embrasures of the castle by the explosion.

Many of the windows of a group of adjacent cottages were broken. Votes for Women and damn the consequences was printed on one of the old cannon and in honor of Miss Pankhurst on another. A quantity of suffrage literature was scattered about.

One account of the explosion says the militant suffragettes loaded and fired one of the big guns which was a relic of the Crimean war. It was Russian made cannon captured at the siege of Sebastopol.

Make Attack on Mail Box's

London April 8.—Another campaign of destruction was started by the militant suffragettes of London against mail boxes today.

Hundreds of boxes were rendered useless and much mail was destroyed by the use of acids ink and burning rags.

HOEL ACCOMMODATION TO BE EXCELLENT AT CHATTANOOGA

Chattanooga Tenn April 8.—The hotel facilities of Chattanooga are not excelled by any city of the population in the south. The city has 27 hotels some of them of large capacity and built on modern lines. The hotel rates for the coming season are as follows:

Still be the same as last year, every day of the week. Rates will not be increased by our local hotel during vacation week. Chattanooga has hotels, boarding houses and private home accommodation for 17,000 visitors.

RECEIPTS AT LOCAL POSTOFFICE MARK DECIDED GAINS

Receipts in the Dothan postoffice from January 1 to March 1, 1913, show a decided gain over the same period of 1912. For instance during that period last year the receipts were $241.17 and this year the receipts were $294.53 showing a gain over last year of $53.36.

Each of the other departments of the postoffice shows about the same gain.

To meet the demands of the office an additional clerk has been employed and an auxiliary clerk has been recommended and another city carrier recommended and Postmaster Reuther is of the opinion that still another carrier will be necessary to give service as well as reorganization of the rural routes out from Dothan and child postal card carriers will be recommended.

Probably no office in the state is showing such an increase of business as the Dothan postoffice.

Miss Katie Belle Tarver of Greenwood Fla. who has been visiting Mrs. A. J. Casey on South street Street has returned home.

MEXICANS, NEGROES AND SOLDIERS MIX

Guaymas Tex April 8.—One soldier was killed and two injured in a street battle today between United States soldiers and a crowd of Mexicans and negroes. Police reserves and the mounted police were required to restore order.

DISCREPANCIES IN CONVICT DEPARTMENT STILL GROWING

Montgomery Ala April 7.—Discrepancies in the State convict department may have begun April 1, 1911. Five weeks after James G. Oakley assumed his duties as president of the board of trustees according to information which developed at the Capitol Monday. An apparent shortage of $300 in this department has been unearthed and will have been summoned to testify as to their knowledge of the transaction.

W. G. Hawley of Abbeville went to Washington in April 1911 to bring back a convict. He received $300 from the convict department according to the records and this money was later returned and not credited or was not returned at all. Mr. Hawley will be placed on the stand in the probe which will be resumed today.

It is believed that the investigation of the affairs of the convict bureau will be continued for a week or ten days longer. A number of merchants furnishing supplies to the state will be examined as well as some of the wardens and guards in the different convict camps. A few persons living adjacent to the convict camps will be questioned as to the nature of the treatment of the prisoners by the officials.

Conditions at Banner mines will also be looked into further and it is possible that W. D. Nesbitt, Chief Mine Inspector will be called to the stand during the present work.

151 WHITE TEACHERS HAD THEIR LICENSES CANCELLED

Montgomery Ala April 8.—Efforts to attend a county institute during the summer of 1912 has resulted in the cancellation of the certificates of the 151 white teachers of the state.

The list of teachers whose certificates have been cancelled by the department of education was announced Monday afternoon by Superintendent H. J. Williamson who has been busy for the past few weeks collecting statistics relative to the various teachers in the state who attend the county institutes.

The cancellation of the certificates of teachers who fail to attend county institutes without good excuse is provided by law. The statute provides that every public school teacher in the state shall attend an institute for one week during the summer. Those teachers who attend summer normal schools or who have good excuse for non attendance on the institutes of the state are relieved of the necessity of having their certificates cancelled.

U. S. MEETING

There will be a meeting of the U. S. at Mrs. J. T. Thrasher's home on South at Andrews Street tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES GATHER IN JOINT SESSION TO VIEW PRESIDENT MOVING PICTURE MADE

Washington April 8.—President Wilson stood on the Speakers' platform in the Hall of the House today and personally read his first message to Congress. The first president since John Adams to exercise that privilege.

The removal of a custom abashed a century ago and now surrounded by such wide differences of opinion among members of Congress attracted to the Capitol a large assemblage.

Belgians were packed with National Guards. Mrs. Wilson and her three daughters and the women of the cabinet circle prominent among them. The diplomatic gallery probably contained a representative of every nation having an envoy in the foreign corps in Washington.

President Wilson slipped away from the White House quietly at 10 o'clock without meeting, accompanied only by his secretary and one secret service man. Upon arriving at the Capitol he was escorted to the rotunda in the House where Speaker Clark sat at one side and Vice President Marshall at the other.

President's Regular Message

The president speaking with his usual clarity of tone and purpose delivered his message while the chamber was packed into the chamber gave the closest attention.

President Wilson began his message as follows:

I am very glad indeed to have this opportunity to address the two Houses directly and to verify for myself the impression that the President of the United States is a person not a mere department of the government having congress from some isolated island of jealous power, sending messages and speaking naturally and with his own voice that he is a human being trying to cooperate with other human beings in a common service.

After this pleasant experience I shall feel more normal in all our dealings with our country.

Cabinet Members Present
Herbert Hoover, Secretary of the Interior, and Garrison took seats in the executive gallery of the House for the members and families to hear the president read his message.

Secretary Bryan said he had an other engagement for the same hour and could not go.

The House galleries were packed with the wives families and friends of Senators and Representatives two hours before the President was scheduled to appear.

Admiral Dewey was escorted to a seat on the floor of the House, taking advantage for the first time of the privilege extended to him by congress when he returned triumphantly from Manila Bay in 1898.

He called on Speaker Clark and was escorted as he entered the chamber. Members of the diplomatic corps filled the private gallery allotted to them. Hundreds of the privileged thousands in the galleries were women.

No speech was the event that Superintendent Woods of the Capitol installed a motion picture camera to take moving pictures of the extraordinary scene. The films will be preserved as a historic record of the days of grandeur.

BANDITS IN AUTO LOOT BANK AND SHOOT TWO PURSUERS

PART OF STOLEN MONEY IS FOUND

LEAVENWORTH Kan April 8.—Part of the $60,000, the contents of a robbed bank stolen from the Union depot at Kansas City, Mo., June 10, 1908 by Chase Stevens alias Savage has been found in Leavenworth scattered in the neighborhood of the home of Stevens mother which was partly wrecked by a storm last night. After the wrecking of the home Mrs. Williams disappeared.

About $30,000 has been found the money being in gold certificates and bills ranging from $10 to $50 bills. Late yesterday more of the money was found. A systematic search of the neighborhood was begun by the police today.

After the robbery Stevens spent a night in his mother's home. The place was searched by government detectives and Pinkertons without finding anything. Stevens is serving a ten years sentence in the federal prison.

When some people smile you want to ask what in the world's the matter

It does look at times as if our state didn't have to find him out but were on to him all the time and kept tabs on him

The man, who seems never to do anything and then gets along as well apparently as you do, does not. Don't imagine he does unless his pile is already made

May be the New York gangsters will fall upon each other and make a good job of it while the killing is good, after which the rest of the people up there will do better

France is contemplating vast aerial operations, says a headline, as if she wasn't busy enough studying up new styles to run us all crazy over

People have been advised so much to fully qualify themselves for some one job till they pass up the free advice much as they do other kinds but you haven't noticed many people begging bread "who are" expert in even some one thing

THAT "INGENUOUS CROUCH"

When it ain't one thing it's another, or things similar

About the time the space writers for the Sunday papers quit talk ink about the double-skirt, making the woman knock-kneed they spring another on us

This time it's the "Ingenuous Crouch"

It knocked us, the first blow, and seeing as how we would have to learn to use that first word, we looked her up. It doesn't pronounce what it spells, like many other words we borrow from the French and make a bad deal of. If you hear the girls say "ang shu noo, with two dots over the a, long 'f', and long 'o' you may bet they have looked it up and are preparing to walk the ingenuous crouch which isn't much of an act. Pled in our girls, many of them, have been walking it all the time, around house home

It is a kind of a slouchy fall to pieces kind of a walk. Like the girl does after eating a hearty meal of cabbage and butter milk and her mother asks her how 'bout doing the dishes

The average stylish girl has two walks. She uses the "much" like the average boy does his two aunts. One is his Sunday suit or the one he wears on special occasions, and let it allowed to wear while he does the chores about the house. The other one is just called his every day suit

The girl has a walk for home folks, and the back yard. It is a sort of a slow every-morning walk that looks as uncomfortable as a cow standing in a cold rain. Then when she gets down town or when she starts, she picks up and gets in high. Has an athletic swing with head beautifully poised, and a spring in her walk that plainly says that she could jump over the cook table but wouldn't dare

Now comes this ingenuous crouch that hasn't any back bone. And the girls on Broadway are falling for it so says the spacewriters for the Sunday papers. We missed our guess about the hobble and didn't think they would make this far south but they came, they stayed they are still here in places. So this ingenuous thing will come. When it does, the girls won't have to stifle as while down town. They can

Just bring their knocking about the house and helping mother with it will suffice and in a scream as screams are going now a days. All she will have to do is to take the stiffening out of the knee joints and let the backbone and let the knees partly double up. Let the shoulders fall and the chest cave making a sort of a letter 'S' and the tilt is accomplished. The stylish walk is on. We follow the illustrations would indicate that a good deal of toe walking, should be done to carry out the disgusting effect. Instead of using the feet from heel to toe as the original plans provided

Huck Baker ought to apply to O'Neal for the privilege of collecting Company 1 to suppress this walk if it is attempted in Dothan before due notice has been served on the public

At one time a heavier or top hat would be worn on the streets but now badly worn wouldn't come to the wearer. He would probably only have rotten things like fish or eggs pitched at him by the smaller boys and a few men but we can't promise immunity for this ingenuous crouch

WHO DESERVES HANGING

Yesterday (Friday) Arthur Gilmer, an educated and intelligent white man was hung, in Montgomery for the murder of a few women. Addition to drink hanging, around saloon bars brought him to his doom

Dr. W. H. Crumpton, President of the state Anti Saloon League, says the legislature that authorized saloons crazed Gilmer and should have been hung, instead of Gilmer. Dr. Crumpton says

Ought the state of Alabama put to death the victim of drink after legalizing its sale, when its effect on the human brain is known before hand, especially if the man can prove he was crazy from drink and knew not what he was doing and had no reason on earth for such an act

Thaw a red handed murderer was not executed but sent to an asylum, likewise the would be assassin of Theodore Roosevelt. A man with his brain set on fire with drink is a hundred times more crazy than either of these. The horror of it is that a state legislature deliberately enacted laws to allow the most convenient places in the city and in the most enticing way to citizens. It is all the more horrible because it was done at the behest of the liquor interests whose agent all powerful in his influence made his home in the capital city, during the sitting of the legislature and still keeps his hand on the machine between sessions of the legislature. More horrible still it was done under the squeals plea that the great rich state of Alabama needed the revenue to pay the expenses of the government

"Who deserves the hanging?" Shame on us for the whole disgraceful thing. Gilmer says that his fate should be a warning to young men to avoid drink and the evil associations that drinking brings. In other words he says don't be seen lined up against a liquor bar taking in the stuff that empties the pocket and crazes the brain.—Bessemer Tribune

Mr. Underwood does not desire to go to the senate now. CRIPPLED NOTES

The Cripple Creek Society held its regular meeting April 15, 1917. A violin solo rendered by Miss Anna Lou Cooper was enjoyed by every one. Mr. S. L. Wilson rendered a trombone solo. Miss Anna Williams rendered a delightful piano solo. Miss Elvira Fortna's recitation was enjoyed very much. Mr. Camper and Miss Eyles who were visitors at this meeting, each rendered a piano solo and Miss Eyles also gave a vocal solo. The debate was resolved that there should be more than eight hours a working day. The affirmative side won and Chanton Davis made the best speech.

Domestic Science Department

Domestic Science Department, Dothan City Schools

Miss Emmere Crymes entertained in the lunch room of the High School on Monday last week in honor of her two friends, Rosa Walzer and Clara Brown who were home for the week end from Tallahassee. These two girls were graduated in the class of 1912. An enjoyable hour was spent at an informal luncheon with Miss Estelle Green the High School teachers and Prof. Brown.

Judge Tuttle, wife and daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. D. R. Malone visited the D. S. Dept. on Tuesday and took lunch at 12:30 p. m. The lunch room in the High School Building was installed shortly after Christmas and has been in running order for nearly three months. This is only the second place in the state where a school building is equipped to serve noon lunches. The object of the department is to give the children at cost food that is wholesome and nutritious. The lunches are sold for 10 cents and in the winter consist of something like the following:

Hot Chocolate,
Sandwiches,
Baked Beans,
Hot Choc.—Rolls
Rice
Apple.

At any time the invitation is open to the public and patrons of the school to visit this dept. There are few High Schools in the larger cities of the country that are not equipped with lunch rooms.

The subject of the proper feeding of children of school age involves problems which may be said to be the most difficult as well as the most important of all the problems of human nutrition.

It is costly to educate a child and the cost may become waste if educational advantages are offered to those who are dull, because of improper feeding. Growing emphasis which is being placed upon the value of the internal education of the schools that which is given silently by surroundings of the child—makes it seem desirable that any food which the child takes in school building even if it is taken from a lunch box should be served to contribute to his training.

D. W. CLENDENIN & CO.

W. M. Bradham of Hamburg S. C. has been in Dothan a day or two visiting his old friends, the Spann Brothers of this city, and J. G. Owen, who came from South Carolina.

Mr. Bradham is a prominent citizen of that state, and comes to Leesville, Ga. often, where he has a business. He left today for Weaverville, Fla. for a few days' fishing, and will return to Dothan the latter part of this week.

Notice

Before placing your order for this month for fresh meats, ham and bacon, call and let's talk about prices and quality. I have bought the City Market at 125 North St. Andrews Street, formerly owned by B. W. Clendinen and operated by J. A. Dougherty. In order that you may obtain better prices and better service, I am doing my own work. I have twelve years experience in this line of business for which I can guarantee satisfaction. Thanking you for past patronage, I am yours to serve.

A Few Words About Manhattans

Just say MANHATTAN SHIRTS to a crowd of twenty-five well dressed men and twenty of them will consider your remark personal. They are wearing MANHATTANS—have worn them for years, and expect to keep on wearing them until they exchange their shirts for slumber robes.

No dead men wear MANHATTAN SHIRTS. They are strictly "LIVE" ones who appreciate style, beauty, comfort and shirt satisfaction. I am exclusive Dothan agent for MANHATTANS. See the new Spring patterns.
